10.

A-movement involves movement to a higher specifier position , never to a higher complement position because " a complement position can only be created by merger with a head (not by